SUNDAY AND FESTIVAL READINGS

Those listed for Sundays and Festivals are drawn from the Table of Readings in the Book of Common Prayer (the listings for a Third Service and from a Table of Epistles and Gospels are not included). Copyright approval has been given to reproduce these. In Ordinary Time, there are two options, either a semi-continuous reading [C] or a paired reading [P].

The readings for the Principal Service are printed in full in The Word of The Lord (Canterbury Press 2003).

The † prefaced to Gospel readings in the Second Service listing is a provision to be used if that service is a celebration of Holy Communion.

WEEKDAY READINGS

The text of the Holy Communion Readings [HC] has been published by Canterbury Press as Common Worship Daily Eucharistic Lectionary, © 2008 Simon Kershaw.

Morning Prayer Readings [MP] are from The Common Worship Weekday Lectionary copyright © The Archbishops' Council, 2005. The lectionary always provides two readings for each office, the first from the Old Testament and the second from the New Testament. These are generally in sequence. One of the New Testament readings for any particular day is from the Gospels.

Evening Prayer Readings [EP] are from The Common Worship Weekday Lectionary copyright © The Archbishops' Council, 2005.

Provision is made in the column [RCL] for the Revised Common Lectionary reading Evening Prayer from the Revised Common Lectionary Daily Readings, © 2005 Consultation on Common Texts and is used with permission. Readings for Thursday, Friday and Saturday help to prepare for the coming Sunday; those for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday reflect upon it. Because of its link with the Sunday readings of the three year cycle, when only one office is celebrated this may be used where an irregular congregation might find the [MP] table less than helpful. Normally, the same Psalm is provided for the Thursday, Friday and Saturday preceding Sunday and another for the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday following.

The psalms for Morning and Evening Prayer follow a sequential pattern in Ordinary Time (apart from the period from All Saints to the beginning of Advent). In the course of the Christian year provision has been made for seasonal variations within the weekday psalmody.
